HUERTA DELEGATES YIELD OR MEDIATION WILL END

Justice Lamar's Last Note to Mexican Delegation is an Ultimatum.

TODAY MAY BRING END

No Peace With Mexico Without Peace in Mexico.

UNCLE SAM'S POSITION

Just What Would be the American Policy if Mediation Failed is Matter of Speculation—Activities Discussed.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 19.—Justice Lamar's memorandum to Emilio Rabasa, head of the Mexican mediation delegation, announcing that the United States must insist on the acceptance of its plan for the pacification of Mexico, is an ultimatum. Unless the Huerta delegates yield, mediation will end tomorrow or Monday.

This is the firm determination of the United States as conveyed to the mediators today. Ambassador Dagama, of Brazil, and Minister Suarez, of Chile, asked the American delegates if their position had changed in view of the Carranza-Villa split and the reply was no.

It was an informal talk, but served to advise the mediators that the published statements of the American and Huerta delegates with opposite views on the type of man to be selected for provisional president, defined clearly the unalterable attitude of the American government.

If Mediation Fails.

Just what would be the American policy if mediation fails or what disposition it would make of the American troops at Vera Cruz is not known even to the American delegates. The Huerta commissioners say they do not know what course of action General Huerta may pursue.

The mediators held no formal session today because Minister Naon, of Argentina, was in Washington. He is expected back tomorrow and will confer first with his colleagues who are anxious to know whether his conference with officials of the Washington government today developed a new road toward solution of the problem confronting them. If it has not, the various plans will be formally presented.

Rejection by the Americans of the mediators' plan, as well as that offered by the Mexican delegates, will be recorded as a matter of form, together with disapproval by the Mexicans of the American plan. Automatically that would adjourn the conferences, according to the rules of procedure adopted when they first convened. The mediators, however, still have some names to suggest for provisional president, but have little hope that an agreement can be reached.

A report from Mexico City that General Huerta had decided to appoint Pedro Lascurain as minister of foreign affairs may change the entire aspect of things, if it develops that Lascurain is to be made provisional president irrespective of the mediation proceedings. Mr. Rabasa, head of the Mexican delegation, said he thought it was improbable this would occur. The American delegates could give the mediators no information about it.

Lascurain was minister of foreign affairs under Madero and at his overthrow became provisional president, appointed Huerta to his cabinet and then relinquished the presidency to him.

Nothing But Peace and Prosperity.

The following paragraph from the memorandum of the American delegates sums up the stand Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann have been instructed to hold:

"The United States is a party to the mediation in the hope that it might lead to peace and that the peace would lead to prosperity. The plan the American representatives propose and on which we must insist will be formulated solely with that end in view."

Another paragraph which is the American government's practical rejection of the mediators' plan reads:

"American objections to the plan approved by the Mexican representatives have been based on the profound conviction that the adoption of that plan would not stop the progress of the victorious army, nor bring that speedy peace which the American government so sincerely desiers."

The confused military situation in Mexico continued to absorb the attention of the mediators and delegates. Exactly how far the breach between Villa and Carranza would affect the Constitutionalist movement was much discussed.

CONDITIONS DEPLORABLE.

In Besieged City of Tepic, Refugees Say.

On Board S. S. California, Mazatlan, June 18.—(By Wireless to San Diego, Cal., June 19.—Refugees arrived here today by the Pacific Mail liner City of Para report that conditions in the besieged city of Tepic are deplorable, but the censorship is so strict that no details are obtainable.

Forty American refugees left for San Francisco today on the Para. The long strain of the siege and the shortage of food are driving out even those foreigners who hitherto have been most obstinate in the defense of their business interests.

TWO HUNDRED MEN ENTOMBED IN MINE

Only 50 of 250 Buried Have Been Rescued.

36 OF THESE ARE DEAD

Disastrous Explosion in Coal Mine in Alberta Thought to Have Been Caused by Gases—Pitiful Scenes at Shaft.

Lethbridge, Alberta, June 19.—A mighty explosion today entombed 250 miners employed in Mine No. 20 of the Hill Crest collieries, limited. Of the 50 miners rescued, only 14 were living tonight.

Despite the efforts of two-score mine experts laboring amid the poisoned gases and debris, hope of rescuing alive the 200 men yet in the mine was remote.

The effects of the disaster were:

Men in mine, when explosion occurred 600, of whom 350 escaped.

Number rescued 50, of whom 36 died later.

Miners still entombed 200, probably killed by fire which followed the explosion.

At dusk a group of women stood at the mouth of the mine, which had been closed by the explosion, still hopeful that the cries for help that came from below earlier in the day might be repeated. Later, however, many of the women dispersed, expressing the general belief that the situation of those imprisoned was hopeless.

The explosion which occurred about 9 A. M., shook the country side, lifted roofs from many cabins and demolished numerous small buildings. Then a score of panic-stricken surface workers rushed from the mine, followed by a dense cloud of smoke and poisonous fumes.

Appeals for help were dispatched to many towns, and residents organized an emergency crew and began the work of rescue.

When the first rescle crew arrived a large force of men set about to clear the shaft, working desperately as the moans of the entombed men came freely from the mine. The moans became fainter and finally ceased. Thousands of tons of rock have fallen into the mine and it is feared the men, even had they escaped death from the poisonous fumes, probably were crushed by falling debros.

No information as to what caused the explosion has been given but it is believed it was due to gas.

Relief Trains Arrive.

Thomas Quigley, superintendent of the mine, is entombed.

Early tonight two trains filled with expert mine workers, doctors, nurses and officials of railways arrived and the work of rescue was begun in a systematic way. The experts found jumbled in chaotic mass, horses, timbers, wagons and mining paraphernalia indicating the force of the explosion.

The explosion tore out both ends of the pit and blocked up the interior. Most of the miners, working about 400 feet below the surface ar eforeign-born but a large number of them are English-speaking.

The rescue work progressed rapidly and late tonight the entrance had been cleared. Several miners were recovered alive near the entrance and a little farther on a few bodies were found.

The mine in which today's disaster occurred is one mile from Frank, Alberta.

Thomas Corkel, of the Miners' Union, was one of those who lost their lives, it was announced tonight.

Several mine rescue experts said it might take a week to reach the bodies of some of thise entombed.

NAMING OF CABINET IS EAGERLY AWAITED

May Possibly Heal the Carranza-Villa Breach.

If Men Designated by Carranza as His Official Family be Satisfactory to Villa Faction, Differences May be Healed.

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 19.—The naming of a cabinet by General Carranza now is eagerly awaited by Constitutionalists as a possible means of healing the breach between eGieral Carranza and General Villa, according to arrivals here who left Saltillo and Monterey yesterday. There was a general impression at those points, according to the travelers, that General Carranza would name his official family within two or three days.

Should the men designated be satisfactory to the Villa faction and should they consent to serve, it was expressed by those conversant with the situation that the differences between the first chief and his chief general might be permanently healed.

MEXICAN CONGRESS REMAINS IN SESSION BY HUERTA'S ORDERS PENDING THE CRISIS

Mexico City, June 18.—The extended session of the Chamber of Deputies did not come to an end when scheduled. The congress was ordered to continue in session by Huerta until after the peace negotiations had ended. Meanwhile Huerta's men in the field are meeting with constant reverses. The crisis of Mexican affairs is expected at any day. The Deputies will stand firmly behind Huerta, and an appeal will be made to all Mexicans, Federals and rebels alike, to unite against the American invasion in case war is declared.

BURNS DROPPED FROM HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

By International Association Of Police Chiefs.

Kiser, of Norfolk, Says Police Chiefs Make Mistake in Failing to Recognize Value of Friendship of the Press.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 19.—William J. Burns, the detective, today was dropped from honorary membership in the International Association of Chiefs of Police in session here.

No official reason was given for dropping Burns, but it was stated by members of the association that a majority of the delegates informally decided to eliminate him and to do so the honorary membership list was revised and his name omitted.

Several times during the convention police chiefs criticised statements which Burns was alleged to have made concerning police methods His action in the Leo M. Frank murder case which he investigated in Georgia, also brought forth rather caustic comment from some of the delegates.

The convention resolved that cities which found segregation the best method of controlling the social evil were justified in retaining that policy. Papers were read on both sides of the issue, some declaring against rigid law enforcement and others advocating that every law should be enforced by the police, including those against the liquor traffic and the social evil.

By acclamation, the association today re-elected Major Richard Sylvester, of Washington, D. C., and Michael Regan, of Buffalo, N. Y., respectively, president and first vice president.

Frank J. Cassar, of Elmira, N. Y., was elected secretary-treasurer.

The convention adjourned to meet next year in Cincinnati.

Chief C. G. Kiser, of Norfolk, Va., delivered an address on "The Police and the Press." He declared himself a firm believer in legitimate publicity and asserted that men in public offices in general and police chiefs in particular, make a grave mistake in refusing to recognize the value of a newspaper's friendship.

He said: "Previous training makes me incline toward the press, but the inclination has been justified by years of police experience and a splendid treatment accorded me by the press.

COMMENDED BY DANIELS FOR GALLANTRY SHOWN

Privates, Corporal and Sergeant in Marine Corps

Removed Two of Their Wounded Comrades to a Place of Safety While Under Fire at Vera Cruz Recently.

Washington, June 19.—Six privates, one corporal and a sergeant in the marine corps today were commended by Secretary Daniels for gallantry displayed in removing two of their wounded comrades to a place of safety while Vera Cruz was under fire.

The men are Sergeant Tracy Baker, Corporal William S. White, and Privates Wallace L. Harndvious, Carl H. Fullerton, Hiram W. Yant, William H. Briggs, John L. Streatenberger and Edward F. Barton.

Private Haggarty, of those killed in the occupation of Vera Cruz, and Edward A. Gisburne, a third class electrician of the battleship Florida, were the two men rescued. With Haggerty mortally wounded Gisburne, himself wounded, attempted to carry him out of the range of fire. His efforts were without success, however, and the men who today were commended then proceeded under an effective fire and removed both wounded men.

A medal of honor has already been awarded Electrician Gisburne for valor shown in trying to help Haggerty. Besides commending the six privates and Corporal White and Sergeant Baker, Secretary Daniels has directed that they be advanced to the next higher rating.

BRANDEIS CRITICISES HOUSE RAILROAD BILL

His Suggestions May be Embodied by Amendment.

Would Not Allow Railroads to Acquire Stock In or Engage in Any Business Other Than That of Carriers.

Washington, June 19.—Criticism of the House bill giving the Inter-State Commerce Commission supervisory powers over the issue of railroad securities was voiced today before the Senate Inter-State Commerce committee by Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston. His views were not at all in accord with those expressed previously by members of the commission, which to a large degree has approved the House bill.

Mr. Brandeis has been closely connected with the commission as counsel in important cases, and has been one of the prominent figures in legislation of this sort for several years.

The House bill would give the commission the power to approve security issues, but would not prohibit specifically any particular issue. Mr. Brandeis proposed to prohibit railroads engaging in any business other than that of carriers and forbid them to issue any securities except for the betterment or extension of railroad property. This provision, he urged to curb the desire of railroads to go into coal mining, hotel and other businesses not purely that of carriers.

His second suggestion was that no railroad should be allowed to acquire stock or interest in any railroad, ship or boat line, trolley line or in any corporation owning or controlling "even for the purpose of extending its railroad system without the prior approval of the commission, and then only to the extent and in the manner approved by the commission."

He also proposed publicity for issues of securities. Mr. Brandeis offered an amendment to the House bill incorporating these suggestions.

Members of the committee tonight said they probably would change the House provision granting supervisory powers to the commission.

END OF MEDIATION DOESN'T MEAN WAR

Argentine Minister Naon Still is Hopeful.

DAY IN WASHINGTON

Has Conferences With Wilson, Bryan and Other Officials—But Uncle Sam Stands Pat on His Peace Plan.

Wtshington, June 19.—Hope that the wavering mediation programme still might bring peace to Mexico was expressed here late tonight by Argentine Minister Naon as he took the train for Niagara Falls after a series of conferences with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan and Luis Cabrera, of the Washington agency of the Constititionalists.

After a long conference at the Argentine embassy with Luis Cabrera, of the Mexican Constitutionalist agency, Ambassador Naon drove to the White House at 9 o'clock tonight and with Secrettry Bryan went in to see President Wilson.

After all the conferences tonight had ended, the Washington government was declared to stand on its position as outlined in the statement issued yesterday at Niagara Falls. In the light of this, it was believed here the fate of mediation still rested with the Huerta delegates at Niagara Falls. Should they stand on their public statement issued Wednesday it was felt mediation would fail.

One outstanding feature of the situation here today was the fact that despite forecasts of failure of mediation, not the slightest movement has been made indicative of a purpose to extend the activities of the army or navy in Mexico. It was stated on the highest authority that regardless of the fact that the understanding between the United States government and General Huerta was that military operations at Vera Cruz should be suspended only during the progress of the mediation, there is not the slightest intention on General Funston's part to take the initiative in any offensive operations in the immediate future.

Moreover, it is well understood at the War Department that for its part, General Huerta does not intend to order an atack on Vera Cruz. Huerta probably would much prefer to have the Americans in control of the only port through which he can count on making his escape from Mexico in case of need than to have it fall into the possession of the Constitutionalists.

So with both sides willing to refrain from a resumption of hostilities, it s beleved pobable that the only esult in the event of collapse of the mediation negotitions at Niagara Falls would be a recurrence to the conditions that existed before peaceful settlement was suggested.

MISS MEEHAN SWIMS ACROSS HAMPTON ROADS.

Feat Accomplished for First Time by Woman.

Newport News, Va., June 19.—Miss Elizabeth Upton Meehan, of Philadelphia, today accomplished the remarkable feat of swimming across Hampton Roads, thereby winning the distinction of being the first woman to accomplish the difficult task. Miss Meehan swam from Pine Beach to Old Point, a distance of seven miles, in two hours and 28 minutes, which is considered by expert swimmers to be splendid time. So far only two men have been able to make the trip through the strong tides, although not once ask assistance, Miss Meehan was exhausted when she reached Old Point.

TO MAKE REGALAR USE OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Six Established Steamship Lines Serve Notice.

One American Line Will Regularly Operate Ten Steamers Between New York and San Francisco

Washington, June 19.—Six established steamship lines already have served notice upon the Panama canal management of their intention to make regular use of the waterway. One vessel from the West coast ports of South America will be at the Pacific gates of the canal July 3, seeking to make her way to Liverpool by that route, and thus to initiate fortnightly service between Liverpool and the West side of South America.

An American steamship line now operating four steamers on the Pacific side and six on the Atlantic are waiting the opening of the canal to merge all ten into a regular line between San Francisco and New York.

Hawaiian sugar, which has already begun to come through the canal on barges, being transhipped at either end will be carried in unbroken cargoes from Honolulu to New York just as soon as Governor Goethals gives the word that regular steamships may use the waterway.

FIFTEEN GENERALS HAVE JOINED VILLA

Renounced General Carranza as "First Chief."

STILL AGAINST HUERTA

Commanding Officers of 30,000 Constitutionalist Troops Send Note to Chief They Will Recognize Only Gen. Villa.

Laredo, Texas, June 19.—Fifteen generals of the Constitutionalist army, commanding a combined force estimated at 30,000 men, renounced Gen. Carranza as "first chief" of the Constitutionalist movement in a note sent to his headquarters at the time Gen. Villa resigned. Villa, however, did not sign the communication. This and other details, suppressed by a rigid censorship at Saltillo, became known at the border today, with the arrival of travelers from Saltillo and Monterey.

The communication, it was authoritatively said, informed the man who has been the leader of the Constitutionalist movement since its inception that the generals would continue to fight against Huerta, but would hold themselves subject only to Gen. Villa's orders and would not recognize Carranza.

Before the travelers left Saltillo, the breach had not been healed by the compromise since announced, and leaders in the Constitutionalist movement, fearing disintegration of the force which they had built up, had summoned every available man of influence to bring the factions together.

Some doubt of the effect of the dissension on the course of the Constitutionalist movement was expressed by men who are closely in touch with revolutionary affairs in Northern Mexico, even though the breach apparently is healed, and both sides have agreed to continue against a common enemy.

The plan of Guadaloupe, on which the Constitutionalist campaigns have been based, provides that the first chief of the Constitutionalist army should remain at the head of the movement as provisional president after Huerta had been eliminated until an election had been held, and the result voiced.

Hitherto Carranza has been undisputed first chief. What effect on the future of the movement the fact that the commanding officers of the largest and most powerful single unit of that army have denied him that title and authority will have, cannot yet be learned, according to the travelers. They said the Carranza forces apparently planned to go ahead as though the incident had never occurred.

Pablo Gonzales, it is said, will attack Son Luis Potosi at once while Villa is taking Zacatecas and then move southward, according to the original plan with Villa advancing from the center and Obregnon from the west.

To Take Lower California.

Douglas, Ariz., June 19.—After departure today of Major E. L. Holmdahl, of Gen. Villa's personal staff, from Agua Prieta for Nogales and Hermosillo, Constitutionalist officials said he had been delegated by Villa to equip and lead an expedition to take Lower California. Such an attempt would require a march across the desert to capture Mexicali and Tijuana. Three previous expeditions have failed.

Maj. Holmdahl served in the United States army in the Philippines and later was an artillery instructor in the Chinese army. He also served in the Boer war under Gen. Viljoen.

Rains Give Trouble.

Torreon, Coahuila, June 19. (Over military wire to El Paso)—Heavy rahns in the States of Coahuila and Durango and Zacatechs made the operation of the troop trains extremely difficult. Wash-outs and the destruction of the bridges on the Torreon-Zacatecas line kept Gen. Natera from arriving here as expected, to confer with Gen. Villa regarding the campaign against Zacatecas.

Troops of the division of the North now before Zacatecas number 11,000. The remainder of the division will be moved within the next two days.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS UNUSUALLY ENCOURAGING

Wilson More Optimistic After Redfield's Report.

Washington, June 19.—Business conditions and the effect on the administration trust legislation programme were taken up today at the cabinet meeting.

Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, told the President reports received from many sources indicated that business was unusually good for this time of the year, and that the prospects were that it would grow better.

The President was much encouraged by the report and it was said his determination to push the trust bills had been strengthened.

LAFOLLETTE SEAMEN'S BILL.

Substitute Is Favorably Reported by House Committee.

Washington, June 19.—A substitute for the LaFollette seamen's bill, passed by the Senate, was reported favorably to the House today by Chairman Alexander, of the merchant marine committee. Like the LaFollette measure, the new bill is designed to promote the welfare of American seamen and lessen the danger of travel by sea, but in many respects it is less rigorous and the committee expects to meet objections of shipping interests to what they claimed were harsh requirements.

New Corporation Provides For Marconi Land Lines, If Needed

(New York Times)

The Marconi Telegraph Cable Company, capitalized at $50,000, was incorporated at Albany. The articles of incorporated give the extension of lines between New York and Albany as one of the objects of the corporation.

Mr. Bottomley, who is general manager of the American Marconi Company, said that there was no particular significance in the incorporation of the new company. "We are simply providing for unforseen deveopments, he said. "We are building stations for service between England and New Jersey, and a number of wire extensions may be necessary. At present we have arrangements with a telegraph company which are quite satisfactory, and there is no idea of extending the lines."

CHARLES S. HAMLIN ON RESERVE BOARD

CHARLES S. HAMLIN

Washington, June. 18.—The selection of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston as a member of the federal reserve board for two years is generally approved in Washington. He served as assistant secretary of the treasury under President Cleveland and first took office under the Wilson administration as assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of customs. He succeeded John Skelton Williams as first assistant secretary in the early spring when the latter became comptroller of the currency.

IN BOYVILLE — "There's Many a Slip Twixt------" — By Stallings

YALE WINS BY MARGIN OF ONLY FOUR INCHES

Struggle Will be Remembered Longer Than Oarsmen

At the Finish Few of the Thousands of Spectators Knew Whether the Crimson or the Blue had Carried Off Honors.

New London, Conn., June 19.—By a margin of four inches, Yale won the 'Varsity four-mile eight-oared race on the Thames river here late today, after a struggle that will stand out in rowing history when the competing oarsmen are forgotten.

Through a four-mile lane of yachts and motorboats, the 16 crew men toiled as the Crimson and Blue tipped oars as no galley slaves ever labored under the lash, while thousands of spectators on shore and on observation trains shrieked hysterically.

When the knife-like prows of the racing shells had cut past the final line of flags, few of the thousands knew whether victory had perched on the bow of the Yale or the Harvard racing craft.

On board the judges' boat at the finishing line could be seen the arbiters of the race gesticulating in conference while first a Blue and then a Crimson one was waved at the end of a long pole. On the observation trains the clans of Harvard and Yale cheered by turn. Slowly the Harvard colors began to sink as the judges finally resorted to the megaphone and screamed across the water that Yale had won its first 'Varsity race in seven years by less than a foot, in 21 minutes, 16 seconds, with Harvard crossing the line one-fifth of a second later.

The victors who had vanquished, saw or heard little of the celebration. Drifting slowly up stream with the tide went the two shells side by side. Too exhausted to hold themselves upright, those who had the strength and wits to do it, splashed water on their exhausted mates.

Never in the history of inter-collegiate rowing has there been a greater exhibition of bull dog determination on the part of 16 oarsmen seated in rival shells. They rowed side by side with Yale always setting the pace. Never once was there open water between the shells. The Blue held the advantage by from a quarter to three-quarters of a shell at every half mile flag except those marking the three and one-half mile station. Here the crimson crew made its bid for victory and for a few hundred yards led by several feet. The Elis soon regained the lead, however, which they never relinquished.

Many Harvard adherents left the shores and trains, confident Harvard had won. There was no question, however, as to the Yale victory. The three officials differed as to the inches but officially decided that Yale had crossed the line about four inches ahead.

Crucial Games At Sunset Park

GAMES OF TODAY WILL BREAK TWO TIES—ONE FOR TOP PLACE.

This afternoon promises to bring forth two more exciting games in the City League pennant race, and with continued good weather, large crowds will doubtless witness the exhibitions from the commodious Sunset Park stands.

The Y. M. C. A. and W. L. I. will take the initial contest of the afternoon, and with these two teams tied for first place, and the Boys' Brigade and Giants tied for second place, both games are bound to be full of thrills from start to finish. Each team is imbued with the fighting spirit and the fan who witnesses today's games will see some real classy baseball.

The fans no doubt remember the occasion when the Association and Infantry last met, how an apparent defeat was turned into a sudden and complete victory by wonderful batting and reversal of form of the demons. The "Y" fans somewhat chagrined over the showing made by their team against the infantry, will be out with a large bunch of rooters and declare they will root their team to victory and the top of the percentage column.

The showing made against the Boys' Brigade last Saturday, when both teams batted to a 3-3 tie, shows that the peppery "Y" boys have come back. When viewed in their training operations, several critics deeply impressed, asserted that the Association will make the Light Infantry sit up and take their nourishment today. Although the Infantry lost to the Giants last Saturday, it must be remembered that Shaw did not twirl the entire game, and with Shaw up to snuff for today's battle, no team will have a cinch in going after their nannie. But the Peerless Pomp is serenely confident that he will be able to slip one over, real easy.

The demonstration of real baseball made by the Giants during the last two weeks has been vastly pleasing to all factions of the City League aggregation and fans. Manager Davis has made a number of changes in the lineup, and it is now a wild and curious mixture of new and old, high-class and uncertain standards. But they have showed determination, speedy stuff, alacrity and "pep", and are going faster than formerly, and in the last two games have played reliable, consistent baseball.

Emerson's Trouble Makers are considered the most spiteful, waspish-dispositioned and dangerous club to monkey with in the whole league. Of all the teams, they seem to be the most annoying when they get an opening, with a man or two on the paths. The Brigade started slow, and critics are conversing in whispers as they predict a whirlwind finish for this aggregation of ball tossers. They are always there, every man on the job, and don't even know when they are beaten, and for today both they and the Giants are keyed up to play the game of their lives, for the sweet pleasure of booting each other right into the cellar is within their grasp, and is an opportunity not to be sneezed at. Ladies are admitted to the games free, gentlemen 25 cents, and children 10 cents. First game at 3 o'clock; second at 5 o'clock.

OVERMAN'S STATEMENT OF GOLD HILL MATTER

Made on the Floor of the U. S. Senate

His Declaration That He Did Not Ask for the Re-Establishment of the Assay Office at Charlotte Confirmed.

Washington, D. C., June 18.—Senator Overman thinks that an injustice has been done him in the publication in some papers of the "garbled and misleading" version of his statement made on the floor of the Senate Monday in offering his resolution providing for the investigation of the use of Senate stationery from his office in the promotion of the Gold Hill mining enterprise. The Senator desires, in justice to himself, that the following verbatim copy of his statement to the Senate, taken from the Congressional Record, and also a copy of a statement by Hon. John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, confirming his statement that he did not ask for the re-establishment of the assay office at Charlotte, be published:

"Mr. President, while, so far as I can see, there is no reflection whatever upon my integrity contained in that article (which appeared in the New York paper, of Monday, June 15th, and read in the Record, referred to) I desire to introduce a resolution asking the Senate to investigate the matter thoroughly, because otherwise someone may say that there is some reflection contained in the article which has just been read.

"So far as the statement concerning letters copied on stationery from my office is concerned, I wish to say that there were just four copies taken by a lady stenographer temporarily employed in my office, who is very much distressed about it. She said that late one evening when I was absent, Mr. Newman came to my office and asked her to make copies of the letter from the mining expert to Senator Chilton, which she did, thinking there was no harm in doing so, as she had frequently done the same thing for other parties. People from my State frequently come there and have letters copied, and she copied the letter in this instance, as I have said, believing there was no harm in it. I knew nothing in the world about it.

"I have never advised anybody to buy any stock in this gold mine; I have never in any way attempted to promote the sale of any stock. I know something about the mine because it is situated in my county. Just prior to the discovery of gold in California, that county was the famous gold field of the United States, and, because of the immense quantities of gold there and in the surrounding counties, the United States Government located at the city of Charlotte a mint. Subsequently the mint was abolished and there was established what was known as an assay office, which continued there until 1910, when the assay office was also abolished. Some time ago this man Newman went down there, unwatered this mine, began crosscutting, and claimed that he had found some of the old veins that had been lost. I may say in passing, that a great geologist, and I will be prepared at the proper time, says this is a wonderful gold field. I refer to Professor Emmons, who speaks of it as a wonderful gold property, and I want to say that the records of the mint in Charlotte show that five million dollars were taken out of this mine.

"I did not ask for the establishment of the assay office at Charlotte, but some parties in my State did ask for the re-establishment of the assay office there. We have other mines down there. They have not been paying in great quantities, because those working the mines have not gone deep enough. Mr. Williams was requested by someone in my State to ask for the re-establishment of the assay office in Charlotte. I have never attempted to secure its re-establishment. Although I am on the Appropriations Committee, I have had nothing in the world to do with it, and refuse to have anything to do with it. The director of the mint sent an expert down there to investigate as to whether this mine would pay enough money to warrant the re-establishment of the assay office. The government has a building there, it has the machinery and all the equipment. It only needs someone to run the assay office; but I did not think the mine had been sufficiently developed to ask the committee to re-establish the assay office. After I saw the very roseate report concerning the mine and, after a talk with this man Williams, whom I do not know and with whom I have never talked before, in which he says the mine is worth about sixty million dollars and the stock was selling at 50 cents, I did buy about $2,000 worth of stock. That is all I have in it and I have done nothing to promote the stock or to assist in its promotion in any way whatever. Down in my office, the letter paper of the committee of which I am chairman, was used without my knowledge and consent.

"Now, I submit the resolution which I send to the desk and which I desire to have adopted in order that Senators may investigate the matter and see whether there has been any want of integrity on the part of anyone in connection with this mine. Of course, no one can or could question my integrity or has done so. But it is best to let the truth be known in regard to everybody else's connection with it. I believe there are great possibilities for the development of the mineral resources of my State, and I hope this resolution will have the effect to let the people know what a great State we have in mineral resources, as well as agricultural and manufacturing resources."

Mr. Williams' Statement.

John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, when shown the statement in a New York morning newspaper which sought to involve the Treasury Department in the exploitation of a gold mining enterprise, said:

"The insinuation that the Treasury Department or anyone connected with it has taken any part whatsoever in the exploitation of a mining enterprise in the South, or elsewhere, or has exercised any favoritism in investigating such an enterprise, is wholly unjustided and without foundation.

"Some six or eight months ago, while I was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in charge of fiscal bureaus, including the mint, Mr. Newman, who was neither an old schoolmate nor an intimate friend, but who came to the Department introduced as a man of responsibility and experience in mining properties, called at the department and requested that the assay office at Charlotte, N. C., which had been closed for less than a year, should be re-opened for the purpose of handling the bullion of a gold mine in that State in which he was interested. I referred him to the Director of the Mint, who felt justified in sending an employe of the office to North Carolina to ascertain if there were any prospects that the business of the mine would justify compliance with Mr. Newman's request. He reported that the property was not sufficiently developed to justify the re-opening of the assay office, and the petitioner was so informed. The inspection which was made by the office of the Director of the Mint was made on the request of the president of the mining company, and not at the instance, or for the accommodation of a United States Senator, or of any other government official.

"I know nothing of J. C. Williams, mining geologist, who is alleged to have made an examination of the property. In fact, I never heard of him."

THEATRICAL

Saturday at the Grand.

What is the most sensational in films, but everything wholesome, will be flashed on the large screen at the cozy, popular Grand Theatre today, thus affording the people of Wilmington one of the biggest and greatest moving picture exhibitions, under most attractive conditions, ever offered them. The Grand has prepared to make this a banner Saturday and every week-ender should be certain to be in on the joy of today at this handsome theatre, which is electrically chilled and otherwise of most comfortable nature.

A wonderful Pathe, "In Royal Bondage," in two large parts, heads today's show. It is a blood-stirrer and will hold the attention of the audience in fascinated grip. It is one of the biggest features of the day and has been lavishly praised by eminent critics of the movies.

But the Vitagraph will offer a film masterpiece that is not one second behind it in up-to-dateness, nor a throb behind it in interest. It is "Tony, the Greaser," telling to story of life on the border, in which Tony plays the hero when he saves the Americans from the insurrectos. The attack on the ranch is a thrilling spectacle. The popular actor, George Cooper, will appear as "Tony", while clever Myrtle Gonzales will charmingly portray the role of "Mary Blake."

At the Victoria Today.

If flattering words of praise count for anything, and they should, the Victoria Theatre's summer season of moving pictures is going to be a great financial success. Undoubtedly it will be a tremendous artistic triumph. It couldn't possibly be otherwise, when it is taken into consideration that the Victoria management has made most elaborate preparations for the season, installing a giant sized aluminum screen and other fine things for the presentation and having made a contract whereby the entire output of the largest film concerns will be handled. The Victoria has contracted to pick from over 50 reels per week and therefore what is best and latest will be assured Wilmington people. Not only this, but a special feature film, one of the most wonderful sensations of the day, will be offered daily. All this in conjunction with the comfortable nature of the theatre, which is cooled by electricity and freely ventilated, and with the price of admission 5 cents, the folks of this city are bound to be tremendously appreciated. Every theatre-goer should keep his or her eye on the announcement of the first day's offering, which will be Monday.

Today the Victoria will wind up its interim season of tabloid musical comedy.

Today at the Bijou.

Heading today's mammoth bill at the popular photoplay house is a stupendous Victor two-reel drama, that has only been released five days. It's right from the big towns, and Wilmington will have an opportunity of being among the first to witness this great production. It's entitled "The Doctor's Testimony," and Miss Florence Lawrence is seen in the leading role of this magnificent masterpiece, supported by Matt Moore, Mr. Cowl and Mr. Dean, three other bright stars. It's a big drama, giving a new twist to the situation of a man being jealous of his own wife—a twist that is vital in its dramatic elements and that glorious little star of Victor plays, Florence Lawrence, is playing the leading role as no one else could play it. This play is big in itself, and what with Miss Lawrence in a part adapted especially to her talents, it is bound to fasten the attention of Bijou goers today and win their admiration. It's in two full reels—over 2,000 feet in length.

The Animated Weekly comes next and will be of especial interest to Wilmington this week, as it portrays the scenes in Charlotte on the event of the celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, May 20 last. It shows the throngs cheering Vice President Marshall and many scenes in and around Charlotte. Other features are "In Troubled Mexico", Metropolitan Handicap, General Coxey's Triumph, The Defiance in Action, Suffragette Track Meet, etc.

A rousing Appollo comedy, "Up and Down" brings to a close today's big bill and makes it one of the biggest of the week, at the usual time when everyone can see it, if at no other time during the week.

USING THE MAILS FOR FRAUDULENT PURPOSE

Charge Against the "National Service Bureau"

Only One McArthur Case Affected by Verdict—Naval Militia to Cruise on Battleship Rhode Island—Robbery.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 19.—The charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes is brought by the United States government against the National Service Bureau, of this city, having its office in the Merchants' Bank building, and representing its business as being that of co-operation with truckers and other farmers in the marketing of produce. And to this end the officers of the company, A. S. Thomas, president; J. L. Sechrest, treasurer, and R. D. Stephens, general manager, have been required by United States Commissioner John Nichols to give bond for their appearance at the November term.

The plan of operation proposed is that the farmers taking stock in the concern would for a commission of two cents per crate have their produce looked after by an agent at the marketing point of the shipment. One farmer, J. L. Jordan, a former railroad man, charges that he has paid in as much as $2,000 stock and was promised a position as superintendent of one of the "icing plants for cars" which the concern has never established. The officers of the company have as yet set up no defense, their plan being to await the trial in the higher court.

This entire section of the State enjoyed steady and copious rains last night finally putting an end to all complaint of the drought conditions that have prevailed for the past two months and threatened to blast the crop prospects.

Only One McArthur Case Affected.

Mr. J. W. Bailey, of counsel for Adam McArthur and Mrs. M. E. McArthur in the noted suits involving the genuineness of the McArthur signatures to notes and other papers of the Newton McArthur Lumber Co., Fayetteville, is authority for the statement that the verdict rendered here a week ago in the case of Citizens' Bank of Norfolk vs. the McArthurs in favor of the plaintiffs, does not settle any of these cases except the one passed upon by the jury, and that counsel for the McArthurs expect to resist the suits that have been entered and have also taken an appeal to the United States Circuit court in the case in which the Norfolk bank secured a verdict from the jury.

Summer Cruise for Naval Militia.

Announcement is made by Adjutant General Laurence W. Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, that the naval militia of this State will take its summer cruise on board the battleship Rhode Island July 6 to July 20, embarking and disembarking at Norfolk on these respective dates. All the divisions, aggregating 175 men and 18 officers, will take part, this being the first cruise under the new naval militia law by which it is provided that the officers and men draw the full pay of their rank during the cruise periods just as those in the regular service. The divisions to cruise are Newbern, Washington, Hertford and Elizabeth City.

Legume Culture for Farmers.

The State Department of Agriculture expects to have its legume culture ready to be supplied to farmers of the State at the cost of production by September 1st, and in such quantities as the demands of the farmers may be. This wonderful liquid for the inoculation of seeds and through the seeds of the soil, is to be manufactured in the bacteriological laboratory here under the direction of Mr. J. L. Burgess, agronomist, and his first assistant, Miss Louise Rahemacker, who is an expert in this culture work from Michigan.

Another Store Robbed.

The store of the Carolina Hardware Co., on Wilmington street, in the heart of the business district, was broken open last night and a quantity of revolvers and cartridges and probably other valuables taken without the robbers leaving the slightest clue to their identity. The revolvers and ammunition missed is valued at about $200. Entrance was gained through the back door by smashing in the glass panel and the iron grating that guarded it. The robbery was not discovered until the store was opened up this morning for business. The police are confident that the robbery was the work of some local thieves, probably boys.

Hearing for Boys Today.

Police Justice Harris will hold the preliminary hearing of the two boys, Fulton Lowery and Frank Mills, charged with the wholesale robberies here Sunday night, on Saturday morning. They were brought last evening from Norfolk where they had been arrested while perpetrating robberies there.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily at $6 per year; $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed, to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO

Friday, June 20, 1914.

Sometimes a party adopts a platform but at other times it adopts a flatform.

People who insist upon "running on" when they should be serious have wheels in their head.

According to the wets in Tennessee, the prohibitionists in that State consist of a political variety and a pernicious kind.

Save up your money now so you can finance yourself for the kind of Fourth of July that you think ought to be coming to you.

The "tango foot" is a new disease reported from Paris. We had suspected that the new disease would be a new walk, something like a cross between the Chinese amble and the Zouave step.

Colonel Roosevelt is contributing to magazines some interesting yarns about his South American trip. He spins his yarns in a different way from that employed by the hard yarn spinners of North Carolina.

Pictures of feminist models in days of ancient Greece show that the ladies considered that it was either more comfortable or extremely stylish to wear garments composed of X-ray material in part and atmosphere in general.

We hate to boast about educational progress in North Carolina when it is being made at the expense of teachers who are expected to carry on the work and be deeply interested in it on salaries that hardly equal the pay of a Wilmington drayman.

The howlers-down over in South Carolina continue to prohibit free speech at campaign meetings in that State. When some people don't want to hear what a speaker has to say they try to prevent him from exercising his privilege to speak. They neglect their privilege of riding off on their mules and thereby reducing the size of the audience.

Many of the men who are criticising President Wilson have been in the Senate and House from ten to twenty years, but they have not accomplished as much as he has in just about two years while having to contend with them in bringing about a solution of the problems which have confronted his critics during all the years of their service.

No, it cannot be said that all people are honest just because they refuse to take a hint. Nevertheless, some hints are meant to be taken, especially the kind thrown out by the Kansas minister who reminded his congregation that Eve did not realize that she lacked clothing until she ate the apple. He then threw out this broad hint: "I wish a few of the women of the congregation would eat an apple."

In order to prove that there are gold mining opportunities in North Carolina when there is sufficient capital behind them, Colonel George Walter Newman ought to have the report of the United States Geological Survey and its maps published in the Congressional Record as part of the investigation proceedings. A survey was made about 1904, we believe, and Charlotte is about the center of a district mapped off and pronounced the richest gold region this side of the Black Hills.

THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

Not nearly all the men in Mount Olive want to be its first Democratic postmaster in about 16 or 18 years. Eleven of them do, and the campaign is on for the honor. Mount Olive is such a nice town that most anybody would be honored by being its postmaster but to be postmaster of that town under the Wilson administration is something that makes a good Democrat want the office worse than any other time.

So many good men have picked themselves out for Mount Olive's postmaster that it has worried Congressman John M. Faison no little to decide between them. He hated to decide between his friends and so he consented to let them fight it out among themselves, with the people of Mount Olive as the arbiters. It is to be left to the will of the people, so they are to decide by ballot at a primary to be confined to Mount Olive township. It will be a primary election, but while it is not one of the State-wide variety it is a momentous event and has the natives in a stir.

Dependence is going to be put in the will of the people of Mount Olive and their will is to be expressed at a postoffice election next Saturday, June 27th. Congressman Faison has confidence in the people and he is not afraid to let them name their own postmaster at a ballot primary. That is local self-government down to the last notch, and since the people can select their candidate for Congress it stands to reason that they can pick out the right kind of a postmaster, especially when no mistake can be made if either of the eleven candidates be chosen.

Leaving it to the people suits about everybody these times, but some of our Democratic friends are opposed to forcing a State-wide primary on them all in a lump. At the same time they believe in the will of the people. An up-State Democrat contends that the primary system should not be forced on any county that does not want it. He declares that would not be democratic, and as he stands for "local self government" he thinks it would be well for the people to vote on the question. You ought to stick a coupling pin here so you can see where the laugh comes in.

That would be holding a primary to get at the will of the people as to whether they want a primary for nominating all their officers. When Democrats want the people to vote on any question, it is a concession to the "local self government" idea or "the rule of the people" as President Wilson calls it. If there is anything in that idea at all, and Democrats believe in it as a principle, where comes in the consistency that a State-wide primary should be confined to candidates of Congress and State officers and should not include members of the General Assembly and county officers down to constable?

We have referendum elections to vote on bond issues, town charters, the stock law, and constitutional amendments. We may have primary elections to vote on candidates for the United States Senate, for Congress, for Governor, and for postmaster, but not a candidate for the Legislature or county officers or constable. If there is anything in "local self-government" why can't the people have a primary for nominating their local officials?

Finally, the funny part of it is the inconsistency of those who believe in "local self-government" and yet do not want it as expressed in its completest sense in a primary election to get at the will of the people. Don't overlook the humor in the proposition to hold a primary so the people can express their will about a primary. All hands seem to be agreed on the fact that a primary, one way or another, is the way to get at the will of the people.

A LAWYER AND THE LAW.

A Georgia lawyer a few days ago accused another lawyer of not knowing any law. Probably he knew the law all right but had to do his best to keep a jury from knowing it. Strife and contention at the bar consists of disputes among lawyers about the law and the facts in the case. When the facts are against a lawyer he has to contend that the law is all wrong, but when he is satisfied he can't get around the law he has to depend on impressing it on t jury that there is always more or less reasonable doubt about the facts and the evidence. In a desperate case, a lawyer has to do his best to persuade a jury to believe that the facts in the case are a lot of dad-blamed lies. At the same time, a man can be an attorney without being a lawyer.

"Necessity knows no law," and it may be so with some members of the bar, but it often happens that necessity compels a real lawyer to put the law in such a light as to make the Supreme court so doubtful about it that it will decide in his favor. There are times when lawyers become advocates but in most cases they prefer to be attorneys. One of the ablest Republican lawyers in North Carolina onect told us that during campaigns some years ago the Republican party always called on him for a number of speeches. He said he responded and did the best he could under the circumstances, but that the only way he could justify his appearance on the stump for such a Republican party as we have in North Carolina was to consider himself an attorney for it instead of an advocate. In fact, he said he could not get away from the idea that he was the attorney for the defense.

Lawyers are shrewd and witty and full of humor as a general thing and it is true that some of them don't think much of each other. Their profession pits them against each other, but considering the fact that they lead such contentious lives, they really get along together on better terms than men of other professions do. Probably those Georgia lawyers entertain the same derogatory opinion of each other, and likely as not both may agree with Bill Arp, the lamented Georgia humorist, that lawyers are "peculiar cusses" but that they rarely ever are honery cusses like some of their clients.

NEW RAILROAD FOR ONSLOW.

One who reads the Onslow Progress this week will observe that the people of Onslow county are stirred up over the prospects for another railroad, known as the "Central Carolina Railroad." It is being promoted by Mr. W. J. Edwards, president of the company. It is stated that the proposed railroad is to extend from Swansboro, on the Atlantic coast to Lillington, Harnett county, at which place it will form a junction with a railroad which is being operated from Lillington to Sanford.

The Onslow Progress says Mr. Edwards is vigorously behind the new project and that it is being pushed all along the line. It is to take in Swansboro, Jacksonville, Richlands and White Oak townships, Onslow county, and the county commissioners have called special elections for July 18 so each of the four townships can vote on a proposition to vote $25,000 in bonds for each township in aid of the project.

The Central Carolina Railroad Company was chartered by the General Assembly in 1913, and it seems as if President Edwards and his associates mean business. Onslow is manifesting keen interest in it, and we infer from the enthusiasm displayed in the editorials of the Onslow Progress, and in communications in that paper, that the bond issues in the four townships are likely to carry.

A RECEIVER FOR MEXICO.

South Carolina has come forward with a deaf and dumb genius who suggests that it is about time to appoint a receiver for Mexico so he can "look after her interests and keep the peace for a period of years."

The 66th commencement of the South Carolina Institute for the Deaf and Blind was held at Cedar Springs, near Spartanburg, on Thursday. Among the graduates was Mr. Thomas Meek Wylie, of Union county, who has spent ten years at the institution. Despite his affliction, he is a humorist. He gets credit for having been one of the most capable pupils the institute has ever had, and it is agreed that one of the best things on the commencement programme was his graduation essay on "President Wilson's Mexican Policy." His essay indicated that he has kept posted on the crisis in Mexico, and he so keenly recognized the perplexities and complications of the situation that he came to the conclusion that a receiver might handle the situation about as well as any of them.

He did not suggest who should appoint the receiver and furnish him an army so he could hold down his job, but that was none of the mute humorist's business.

What has become of the old fashioned lamplighter who used to start out on his rounds long before night with a pocketful of matches and a step ladder so he could light the lamps at night and blow them out or turn them out by sun-up next morning? In these modern days, electric lights are flashed on in an instant, revealing a city in strange contrast with a town which once let the sleepy cow use the streets for a night's rest.

Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, is so down on the tango that he advises young men not to think of marriage till the tango craze dies down. By that time the tango girls will be old maids, and we are satisfied that the young man's idea is that if he doesn't take them while they are young they won't care to marry him when he's old. Among the useless things is advice to young people who look on it as mostly a joke.

CURRENT COMMENT.

There is not a big howl now when a morning paper desides to issue seven days in the week, as there was about 12 or 15 years ago. Somebody ought to produce some expressions of one or two papers about that time. —Raleigh Times.

Burton Bros. Realty Co., pulled off a successful land sale in Wallace last Friday. Mr. Paisley Boney bought the Wallace Hotel for a good price. They say the Wallace people believe in their own grit. The new tobacco warehouse at Wallace is almost completed and is a "crackerjack."

The "senate official letterhead mine —the Gold Hill, N. C., mine—is one with a long history. Before the Civil War, it is said, several millions of dollars were taken from it. Like most North Carolina mining ventures, however, it has had a checkered career. The Copper Handbook describes it as the largest gold producer in 1845 in the United States.—Augusta Chronicle.

When a woman casts her visual organs on anything and says she will not have it, it's time to quit. A woman was having a dentist fix a small plate for her the other day—not a full plate, of course, for who ever heard of a woman with a mouthful of store teeth—and when she saw the thing she vowed he would never put them in her mouth! "It's pewter," she declared. It was a composition of silver and aluminum, but it was no go. She would have none of it, yet it could not be seen in her mouth. The thought of "pewter" kicked the fat in the fire. —Greensboro Record.

With commendable enterprise and public spirit, the Southern Railway is making an exhibit of Southern agricultural, horticultural and mineral products at the Anglo-American Hundred Years Peace Exposition, now open in London. The Southern is the only American railway with an exhibit at this exposition, and the display it is making is attracting general attention. The Southern Railway is doing a wonderful work in advertising the advantages and attractions of the South.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

HISTORY AND PROPHECY.

Subject Discussed by Mr. Haynes at Tent Meeting Last Night.

Before a larger audience than usual last night Evangelist Carlyle B. Haynes delivered an address on history and prophecy at the big gospel tent in which he is holding nightly meetings at 11 and Market streets, which revealed a clear understanding of the historical epochs of the church, and his familiarity with the Word of God. He held the interest of his large audience to the last word. The address was illustrated by a chart.

His subject was "The Seven Seals" and he took as a basis for his remarks the fourth, fifth and sixth chapters of the Book of Revelation. He declared the Book of Revelation was meant to be understood, and that in the third verse of its first chapter a special blessing was pronounced upon its study.

On Sunday night Mr. Haynes will complete his discussion of this prophecy under the topic "The Great Seal of Jehovah."

BEFORE THE RECORDER.

"Coon" Brown, Colored, Sent to County Roads for Three Months.

The Recorder yesterday sentenced "Coon" Brown, colored, to serve three months on the county roads on a charge of having violated the prohibition law. He was tried Thursday morning but judgment was held open until yesterday. Sylvester Ashe, colored, was charged with assault on a female and with assault with a deadly weapon. The cases were continued until Monday and in default of bond he went to jail.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against Annie Plummer, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. Sterling Lanier, a colored boy, was charged with violting the cigarette law, but on account of his youthfulness prayer for judgment was continued. Judgment was left open in a case against T. A. Watson, Jr., charged with speeding.

New Telephone Directory Out.

The Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co., has sent out to all its patrons a new telephone directory which is corrected to June 1st, 1914. If anyone has failed to receive one they are requested to communicate with the office and one will be sent to them. The new directory contains all the telephones at the beach which were listed by June 1st. In order to bring it strictly up to date Manager Lucas also included several 'phones which were installed after that time, delaying the publication of the directory for about ten days in order to do this. There is included as usual a directory of the phones at Southport.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: H. F. Canady and wife to Tidewater Power Company, for $1,000 and other considerations, tract in Harnett township, on the eastern prong of Hewlett's Creek, containing 48.56 acres; Geo. B. Applewhite to W. M. Cumming for $100 and other considerations, lot on east line of Eighth, 32 feet north of Queen street, 33x82 1-2 feet in size; Thos. K. Williams to Estelle L. Arnold, for $50 and other considerations, lot on east line of 13th, 155 feet north of Nun street, 33x75 feet in size.

Escaped Convict Captured.

Charlie Fowler, colored, one of the several convicts who escaped from the East Wilmington camp several months ago, was brought to the city last evening by Special Officer Ames, of Port Norfolk, Va., where the negro had been apprehended from advices and descriptions sent out from this city. He was turned over to the New Hanover tuthorities, and will go back to the roads. Fowler is serving a ten-year sentence for highway robbery, and at the time of his escape he still had something over six years to serve.

Mr. Grant High Man.

L. Clayton Grant, Esq., was high man at the weekly shoot of the New Hanover Gun Club, held at the grounds at 17th and Castle streets yesterday afternoon, with a score of 70 out of a possible 75. Dr. J. H. Dreher was second with 69, Mr. U. A. Underwood third, with 68, and Mr. Geo. S. Boylan fourth, with 67. The weekly shoots are held each Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good.

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

RESINOL CURED AWFUL ITCHING IN ONE NIGHT

New York.—"The skin on my hand got red and rough. It itched and I began to scratch it. It itched so that sometimes I could not sleep all night. I was suffering very much. I used —— —— salve and ——, but they did not seem to help me. This went on for six or seven months. Then I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. I used them one night. In the morning, to my surprise, my hand was all well and the trouble has never returned. This is the absolute truth."—(Signed) Miss Celia Kleinman, 61 Columbia St., April 26, 1913.

Nothing we can say of Resinol equals what others, such as Miss Kleinman, say of it. It does its work quickly, easily and at little cost. If you are suffering from skin trouble, why don't you try Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For trial size, free, write to Dept. KK, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY LEAGUE CONFERENCE

Mr. W. V. Martin Delivered Address Last Night.

Mr. W. A. Graham, of Warrenton, Made President of Organization. Missionary Work Discussed. Programme Today.

"Making Life Worth While" was the subject of a powerful address by Mr. W. V. Martin, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Spartanburg, S. C., at the North Carolina Epworth League conference at Fifth Street Methodist church last night. He was heard by a large congregation and the address made a profound impression. The morning session was devoted to a discussion of missionary work, led by Dr. F. S. Parker, of Nashville, Tenn., general secretary of the league. Officers for the ensuing year were elected at the business session held at the close of the conference.

Following are the officers elected by the conference:

President—W. A. Graham, Warrenton.

First Vice President—Rev. J. H. Buffaloe, Garner.

Second Vice President—Rev. J. M. Ormand, Hillsboro.

Third Vice President—Miss Gertrude Royster, Raleigh.

Fourth Vice President—Prof. W. A. Bryan, Durham.

Secretary—Miss Lizzie Hancock, Newbern.

Treasurer—E. A. Palmgren, Wilmington.

Editor League Publication—Walter Patten, Raleigh.

Junior Superintendent—Miss Iver Ellis, Newbern.

Miss Lizzie Hancock was elected as representative to the general convention to be held in Buffalo.

It was first decided to consolidate the offices of secretary and treasurer and Miss Hancock was elected to both positions. However, at the meeting last night this was changed and Mr. Palmgren unanimously elected to the position.

The session this morning will be devoted to a discussion of the literature department of the league, which will be in charge of Miss Gertrude Royster, of Raleigh. Following the conference there will be an address on the "Knights of Ezelah," by Rev. H. A. Humble, of Laurinburg. The session will close with a discussion of the Junior League by Miss Iver Ellis, of Durham. There will also be reports from several of the local leagues.

Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be another address by Mr. W. V. Martin on "The League and Social Service."

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock the annual sermon will be preached by Rev. C. T. Wilcox, of Louisburg. The conference will close tomorrow night with a consecration service, conducted by Rev. Walter Patten.

Mr. Martin in his address last night discussed in a striking and forceful manner some of the fundamental principles of a really successful life. He urged his hearers to form a definite purpose in life, one that will last them all the way. He deplored the shiftless manner in which so many young people, and older ones, too, live. He made an earnest plea that those present would seek to find out God's plan for their lives and then make them conform to that plan.

"We have to make a living, but it is far more important that we first make a life," he declared. "What is needed most of all is a firm purpose that will make men and women of integrity."

Continuing he showed how it is impossible for success either in business or in the Christian life to be achieved without hard work and persistent effort. While this is a commonplace truth and is familiar to all, it is one that is ignored frequently and needs to be emphasized over and over. It costs to be a master or to be able to do anything worth while either in business or in the church, he declared, but it is worth while. He illustrated this with incidents from the lives of Edison and others, who toiled for years before they reached the goal of success.

Taking the truth taught by Christ that he who is forced to go with him a mile should go with him twain, the speaker brought home to his hearers a great and important lesson that they should not become slaves to their work.

"Learn the power, the beauty, and the joy of going the second mile, of doing more than is expected of you. Do your work in the world not because you have to do it, but because you want to do it. Duty is a sublime word but devotion is a far bigger word," the speaker declared. "If the world is ever to be brought to Christ it must be by going the second mile."

In the next place the speaker showed that the life worth while is that which is unselfish. While we are accustomed to think of a miser as one who hoards his gold it is possible to be misers with other things than money. The only life worth living is that which is poured out in real genuine service to our fellowman. Above all do not fritter life away in meaningless tasks or in seeking your own pleasure, the speaker urged.

In conclusion the speaker stated that to some that the ideal he had pictured might seem to be that of a dreamer but the history of the world had been made by just such men as had had the lofty ideals that he had tried to portray, he stated. As for him he was willing to be called a dreamer, if only he could help to make the world better and nobler by his having lived in it.

A feature of the conference has been the early morning prayer services which are conducted by Rev. H. M. North, of Durham. In spite of the early hour they have been attended by a large number of the young people.

The reports of a large number of the leagues represented at the conference were made yestrday morning. Practically all of thm reported increases in membership and in interest. Fifth Street League, known throughout the conference as one of the most active and energetic in the State, reported by far the largest increase in membership and in the amount of funds raised.

At the close of the service last evening the visitors and other members of the congregation were entertained in the lecture room of the church with songs and readings by several members of the local leagues. The entertainment was arranged by the entertainment committee of the Fifth Street League, of which Mrs. M. J. Fowler is chairman.

ANNUAL FROLIC OF POLICE

Programme of Events at Carolina Beach Next Friday Announced Yesterday.

Wilmington's "finest" will have their annual frolic at Carolina Beach next Friday and that this will be an interesting occasion is indicated by the list of events named on the programme, announced yesterday by the committee in charge. Besides the policemen and their families, there will be hundreds of their friends who will also spend the day at the beach. The steamer Wilmington will make three trips during the day.

There will be dancing from 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. except from 1 to 3 P. M. when there will be a recess for dinner. There will be none of your maxixe and tango dancing, but the old-fashioned square dance, the two-step and the waltz will be much in evidence.

An interesting fetture will be the pretty girl contest which will continue through the day. Votes will cost a penny each and the girl receiving the most votes will be given a fine cake, donated by the Globe Baking Company, of this city.

Following the programme, as announced yesterday:

11 A. M.—Tug of war. The winning team gets a box of cigars.

Noon—100-yard dash. Three races light, middle and heavyweights The heaviest are above 200 pounds.

2:30 P. M.—Annual police shoot. The winner gets a $5 meerschaum pipe, donated by Mr. B. C. Moore.

4 P. M.—Address by Mayor P. Q. Moore, followed by an address by Councilman W. F. Jones.

5 P. M.—Jumping contest. A prize goes to the winner.

SERVICES AT IMMANUEL.

Rev. T. E. P. Woods Will Preach Tomorrow Night at 8 O'clock.

Rev. T. E. P. Woods, of Rutherfordton, principal of the Westminster school, will preach tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at Immanuel Presbyterian church He has been in the city for several days in the interest of his school. There are a number of boys from Wilmington who were students there the past year. Mr. Woods was a classmate of Rev. J. S. Crowley, at the Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tenn.

The services at the morning hour at Immanuel will be conducted by the pastor. Sunday school will be held at 10 A. M.

NAMING OF CABINET IS EAGERLY AWAITED

A hurried call, it was said, had been sent out from Carranza's headquarters for representative men, conversant with Constitutionalist politics, to proceed to Saltillo to confer with him concerning the cabinet choices.

It s well known, according to border arrivals, that considerable opposition has arisen on the part of Villa and his friends to certain men close to Carranza.

That General Felipe Angeles will be a member of the cabinet if he will accept, seems certain, according to reports reaching the border. It is said that it would be agreeable to Villt were the Niagara mediators to select General Angeles as provisional president, although the plan of Guadalupe, on which the Constitutionalist programme is proposed to be btsed, provides that the first chief of the Constitutionalist arm" shall become provisional president.

Pittsburg, June 19.—Leaders of the Allegheny Congenial Industrial Union, in charge of the strike of 12,000 employes of the Westinghouse industries tonight announced that a committee would confer tomorrow with President E. M. Jerr, of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company.

ELECTRIC ROAD RUMORED

Plans Maturing for Trolley Line to Carolina and Wilmington Beaches—New Company.

Rumors prevalent in business circles for the past several weeks to the effect that plans are afoot for the formation of a company to build and operate an electric railroad from the city to Carolina and Wilmington beaches are not denied by the officials of the several companies developing the beaches, though no official statement has yet been made confirming the talk.

Officers of the New Hanover Transit Company and the Wilmington Beach Corporation, both of whom are said to be actively engaged in the promotion of the company to build the road, when questioned from time to time recently about the rumors, have stated that nothing could be given out for publication just yet.

However, it is known that plans for the organization of such a company have been under serious consideration for some time, and it is also rumored in some circles in touch with the interests affected, that the organization of the company has already been perfected.

Outside capitalists from Baltimore and Washington, D. C., are said to be behind the new company, and all that remains to be done before the announcement of the plans is to arrive at an understanding with a number of the property holders in the section to be traversed by the proposed road.

Several corporation lawyers, capitalists and electrical road engineers have visited the city a number of times recently and have held several conferences with the officers of the Wilmington Beach Corporation and the New Hanover Transit Company. Several of these gentlemen are in the city at the present time.

It is expected that a definite announcement relative to the new company and its project will be forthcoming some time during the next several weeks.

SECRETARY HOUSTON DECIDES WHAT IS WINE.

Only the Pure Article Must be So Labled Hereafter.

Washington, June 19.—Secretary Houston today decided "what is wine" and made a pure food ruling of far-reaching importance to all domestic wine makers.

It prohibits the use of the name of "wine" on products made by the addition of water to the juice, pomace or pulp of grapes, and defines wine to be "the product of the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of the fresh, sound, ripe grapes, with the usual cellar treatment."

The new decision provides that where tny water is added to the pomace of grapes it is not permissible to label the produce otherwise than as imitation of wine and affects all wines made after June 12, 1914.

ONE ADDED TO DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN THE HOUSE.

L. C. Dyer, of Missouri, Unseated; Gill Given His Place.

Washington, June 19.—L. C. Dyer, of St. Louis, Republican, representing the Twelfth Missouri district, was unseated by the House late today by a vote of 147 to 98. His election was contested by Michael J. Gill, Democrat.

Then by a vote of 126 to 108, a resolution declaring Gill legally elected was adopted. Mr. Gill immediately took the oath of office.

On the vote to declare Gill elected 31 Democrats voted with the solid Republican minority against him.

Under the usual custom, Mr. Dyer keeps his salary up to today and gets "not exceeding" $2,000 for expenses of the contest on his side. This was Mr. Dyer's second term in Congress.

BUILDING AND LOAN LEAGUE

Local Associations Will Organize—Preliminary Meeting Yesterday. State Convention.

The decision on the part of the Wilmington building and loan associations to form a local building and loan league, to probably be affiliated with the State Building and Loan Association, was reached at a meeting held yesterday morning in the offices of Mr. Jas. Owen Reilly, on Princess street, and attended by representatives of practically every building and loan association in the city. Another meeting will be held next Friday, at which time the local league will be organized.

The meeting yesterday was presided over by Mr. C. C. Brown as chairman, while Mr. W. G. James acted as secretary. Sentiment was found to be unanimous in favor of the organization of a local league, and Messrs. W. M. Cumming, J. O. Reilly and H. F. Wilder were named as a committee on constitution and by-laws, to report at another meeting to be held next Friday.

The building and loan men discussed the advisability of the Wilmington associations affiliating themselves with the State Building & Loan Association, which will hold its annual convention at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, in July. The meeting took no action, however, as the decision on the part of each individual association will have to be left to the directors of that association. Those present, however, expressed themselves in favor of attending the convention at the Seashore and possibly of arranging some form of entertainment in honor of the visiting building and loan men. This will be determined at a later meeting.

The associations represented at the meeting yesterday, and those who represented them, are as follows:

Co-Operative—R. H. Northrop.
Rural—J. O. Reilly and R. C. DeRosset.
Mechanic—W. M. Cumming.
Citizens—John D. Bellamy, Jr.
Peoples—W. E. Perdew.
Carolina—L. W. Moore.
North Carolina Home—Jas. H. Taylor, Jr.
Wilmington Homestead—C. C. Brown.
Orton—W. G. James.
City and Suburban—L. J. Carter.
Progressive—J. M. Solky and Frank King, Jr.
Hanover—J. W. Yates and H. F. Wilder.

Cars to Seaforth.

Cars will be operated from Lumina to Seaforth every 10 minutes this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock, and those who may wish to see the southern extension of Wrightsville Beach can do so by transferring from the regular suburban cars at Lumina. The service to Seaforth was operated for the first time last Sunday and proved very popular, many of the visitors to the beach riding over the new line to Masonboro Inlet.

PRETTY ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY YESTERDAY.

A most attractive announcement party was held yesterday morning when the Debutantes Thursday Morning Club met for the last meeting of the season at the home of Miss Madge Brand on Chesnut street. The young ladies were presented with hand painted cards bearing a number of letters, from which they were requested to form the longest word possible. Miss Kate Northrop soon put them together correctly, and was asked to read a formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Madge Brand and Mr. Carson Taliferro, of Charlotte.

Dainty refreshments were served, accompanied by place cards of Kewpies in bridal array, and bearing the names of Miss Brand and Mr. Taliferro, and Fall, 1914.

After best wishes and congratulations the merry party dispersed.

FORMER WILMINGTONIAN MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

Mrs. J. W. Perrin returned yesterday from Mt. Morris, N. Y., where on Tuesday of this week she attended the wedding of Dr. George Kirby Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Collier, of Wilmington, and Miss Clara Louise Prophet. The folloging account of the marriage is from the Mt. Morris correspondence of the Rochester Union and Advertiser:

"St. John's Episcopal church in this village was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, when Clara Louise Prophet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mayhew Prophet of Mt. Morris, was united in marriage to Dr. George Kirby Collier, of Sonyea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Probert Collier, of Wilmington, N. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Dennis Cooper, rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church, of Geneseo.

"The bride was given in marriage by her father, and she was attended by Miss Ann S. Prophet and Miss Marian H. Prophet, both sisters of the bride, and Miss Evelyn T. Jackson, of Buffalo. Samuel P. Collier, Jr., of Winston-Salem, N. C., was best man, and the ushers were Sherman Peer of Utica; Brainard C. Page, of Geneseo, and John Mayhew Prophet, Jr., and Wilson B. Prophet, brothers of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at "Twin Oaks", the home of the bride's parents. Many guests were present from out of town."

The groom is connected with the New York State hospital for epileptics, at Sonyea, N. Y., and is recognized as one of the leading specialists in the treatment of this dread malady.

Wrightsville Beach

Miss Minnie Hortorf, of Maxton, was among the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barrett and children, of Augusta, Ga., are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Capt. S. F. Packer, of the steamer Navahoe, spent yesterday at the beach, a guest at The Oceanic.

Mrs. Charles E. Bell and children and maid, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived yesterday and will spend several weeks at the Oceanic Hotel.

Included in the arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday were Messrs. A. C. Leske, of Atlanta, Ga., and J. A. Reid, of Roanoke, Va.

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were Mrs. Joe Toole, of Montgomery, Ala., and Miss Mary Marty, of Meridan, Miss.

After a week of rather dreary weather at the beach it cleared off yesterday afternoon and the prospects are for a delightful week for the Press convention.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farley, of Atlanta, Ga., were members of a party that arrived at the Seashore Hotel yesterday.

Miss Mozelle Trollinger, Miss Olive Dike and Mr. Herbert Lowry, of Newton, delegates to the Epworth League Convention, are guests at the Temple cottage.

Among the guests registered yesterday at the Seashore Hotel were Messrs. A. J. Ham, Florence, S. C.; W. H. Harwell and J. W. Lyerly, Atlanta, and Lee Clarke, Macon, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Bugg, of Durham, arrived yesterday and will spend ten days at the Seashore Hotel. Mr. Bugg is manager of The Malbourne, the handsome new hotel of Durham.

Mr. Jas. H. Caine, editor of the Asheville Citizen, and Mrs. Caine, will arrive Tuesday to attend the Press Convention, and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Cowan during their stay at the beach.

The first yacht race of the season over the course of the Carolina Yacht Club will be sailed this afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock. The race is one of the series for the Jones-Walters trophy and is for class A boats.

Wednesday was the birthday of Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, the genial manager of the Seashore Hotel, and the occasion was remembered by Steward Apter, who presented the captain with a very handsome birthday cake.

Mr. J. A. Robinson, of Durham, better known as "Old Hurrygraph," writes that he will be at Wrightsville Beah in full fore for the Press meeting. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Robinson, who is a most cultured and refined woman.

Friends of Miss Ella Wright Wilcox, of Atlanta, who visited at the beach last season, will be interested in the announcement of her approaching marriage to Mr. Phillip Tyler Barbour, business manager of the Atlanta Constitution. The wedding is announced for July 21 at Atlanta.

Mr. J. P. Cook, the well known and varsatile editor of the Uplift, the monthly published in the interests of the Stonewall Jackson Training School at Concord, is expected to arrive today and will be a guest for several days at the Oceanic Hotel. He will, of course, attend the annual meeting of the Press Association next week.

The International Typesetting Machine Company, manufacturers of the Intertype machine, will exhibit one of their machines at the Oceanic Hotel next week during the meeting of the North Carolina Press Association. The Intertype is somewhat similar to a Linotype machine, but a more recent invention. Mr. J. B. Wyckoff will be in charge of the exhibit at The Oceanic.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Register, of Charlotte, are expected to arrive next week to spend some time at The Oceanic. Dr. Register is a well known physician of the Queen City and is president of the Tri-State Medical Society. He will attend the meeting of the Press Association as he is also a member of the editorial fraternity, being editor of the Carolina Medical Journal.

A very clever exhibition of the Argentine Tango was given by Miss Chandler and Mr. West at Lumina last night. Their execution of this difficult dance was very much admired by all those present. Tonight this couple will give an exhibition in the Tango Americaine, which is a dance originated by Mr. West himself. They will also dance a one-step. The dancing exhibitions will take place at 9 o'clock and at 10 o'clock.

HONOR OF STATE PRESIDENT.

Christian Endeavorers of Bethany Church Entertain Friends.

In honor of their newly-elected State president, Mr. George L. Mitchell, who founded the society there in connection with the work of the First Presbyterian church, this city, the Christian Endeavor Society of Bethany church, on the Castle Haynes road, last night from 8 to 11 o'clock delightfully entertained a large party of their friends in the school building near the church. Included in those who attended were a number of friends from the city, all of whom enjoyed greatly the pleasures of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lineker were hosts for the Christian Endeavorers and the auditorium of the building had been prettily decorated for the evening. Dainty refreshments were served, including ice cream, cake, fruit punch and other delicacies.

Dr. John Thames, who is identified with the work at Bethany, made the opening address of the evening and Mr. W. M. Cumming very prettily introduced the new State president, who responded feelingly and in befitting manner. Other addresses were by Mr. John Wells, Rev. Andrew J. Howell and Mr. Seitter, of the Castle Haynes road section.

The party returned to the city shortly before midnight delighted with the occasion in every respect.

BULLETIN BY HEALTH BOARD

Contains Information and Advice Relative to Protection From Contagious Diseases.

"How to Protect Yourself and Family From Sickness" is the title of a bulletin just published by the New Hanover County Board of Health, for general distribution to the public and especially to families where cases of contagious diseases have occurred. The bulletin is full of important facts regarding the prevention of the various contagious diseases and the information contained will be of interest. It is as follows:

"The disease germs which cause consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever, infective meningitis, phenumonia, sceptic sore throat, whooping cough, measles, mumps and infective tonsilitis exist in great numbers in the mouths, throats and nosses of persons suffering from these diseases. These germs are found in the mouths, throats and noses of persons who have suffered from these diseases for varying lengths of time after recovery.

"Secretions or material expelled from the mouths, throats and noses ed persons suffering from these diseases, or who have recently suffered from them, should be received directly into papers or cloths, which should be burned at once or put in a strong disinfecting solution, which will be furnished by the health department.

"No persons except the nurse and doctor should enter the room that is occupied by a person sick from any of these diseases, and every person who has been exposed to any of these diseases should use an antiseptic nose and throat wash several times a day for ten days or two weeks after being exposed.

"The germs of typhoid fever, infective diarrhoea (especially in infants), dysentery and consumption of the bowels, as well as eggs of bookworm and other dangerous intestinal parasites, are found in the bowel movements of people who are suffering, or have suffered from these diseases. The germs of typhoid fever are also found in the urin. All the urin and bowel discharges from persons sick of these diseases or who have recently been sick of these diseases, should be received in a vessel that has a perfectly smooth surface like earthenwtre, and must be disinfected before they are taken from the room ii which the person is sick. The vessel must then be scalded with boiling water and disinfected. Disinfectants for this purpose will be furnished by the health department.

"It has been proved that typhoid fever, diarrhoea and consumption, and possibly a number of other diseases are carried by flies. Therefore all sick persons should be screened from flies not only for their own comfort but as a protection for others.

"Malaria is carried by mosquitoes. Therefore every person suffering with malaria should be screened against mosquitoes to protect others from taking the disease.

"In all the diseases mentioned above excepting malaria the greatest danger of others taking the disease with the sick person. Everything is caused by coming in close contact that is used by the sick person should be scalded or disinfected before being taken out of the sick room. Nurses and others taking care of the sick should thoroughly wash their hands with hot water and soap, after handling the patient or anything that has come it contact with the patient, and all food that is taken into the sick room should be destroyed if not used by the patient.

"The law requires every physician and every householder to notify the Health Department of every case of the diseases mentioned above that may occur in the practice of the physician or in the home of the householder."

GERMAN SCIENTISTS TO STUDY THE HOOKWORM.

Famous European Modeler at United States Marine Hospital Here.

For the purpose of making life size models of hookworm patients for the use of German scientists in their study of the disease, Dr. Rauer, a famous European modeler, is at the United States marine hospital here, with several assistants to spend about three weeks.

Dr. Rauer and his assistants will also make enlarged models of the hookworm, it being necessary to enlarge the models several thousand times in order to bring them up to the point where an accurate study can be made with the naked eye.

Dr. C. W. Stiles, discoverer of the hookworm, is assisting Dr. Rauer in his work at the hospital.

SHARP BREAK IN COTTON

Prices Make New Low Ground for Movement—14 to 18 Points Net Lower.

New York, June 19.—There was a sharp break in the cotton market today with prices making new low ground for the movement under more or less general selling, which was evidently inspired by continued good weather in the South. Closing prices were easy and from 14 to 18 points net lower.

Liverpool was considerably lower than due and the local market opened barely steady at a decline of five points on June and of eight to ten points on later months. The favorable showing of the early weather map and the official forecasts for good weather again today and tomorrow as well as the weak cables appeared to inspire a good deal of local selling and active months sold 10 to 17 points net lower shortly after the call. A rally of some 5 or 6 points followed on covering and some buying which may have been encouraged by reports of low night temperatures in the eastern belt, but the detailed weather reports showed good soaking rains east of the river and the market turned still weaker during the afternoon. Stop orders were uncovered on the decline which carried October contracts off to 12.52 or 54 points below the high record established after the publication of the June bureau.

There was considerable realizing by recent sellers on the decline, but offerings remtined heavy right up to the close and last prices were practically the lowest of the day. The week-end figures had little influence on the immediate market and after having shown relative stadiness early in the day, July broke pretty sharply in the late trading. The talk around the ring suggested confidence that the crop outlook had improved during the past two weeks, and local traders were inclined to attribite the bulk of the day's selling to liquidation.

Spot quiet; middling uplands 13.25; guif 13.50. Sales 120.

Cotton futures closed easy.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET.

New Orleans, June 19.—Cotton today felt the pressure from selling stimulated by what the bears called perfect weather conditions over the belt. Not only was the weather favorable but crop accounts generally were improved in tone. The lowest prices were reached in the afternoon when the market was 17 to 18 points under yesterday's final figures. The close was at the lowest.

The forecast indicated that little change would take place in weather conditions over the belt in the immediate future and this increased the disposition to sell. During the morning the market was steadied by fresh long buying of rather a strong character, but in the afternoon the ring did not absorb offering readily. Considerable liquidation of weak long cotton was seen late in the session. In some quarters it was that large long interests were letting go because of growing fear of a favorable condition report up to June 25. Futures closed steady: July 13.24; August 13.11; October 12.50; December 12.50; January 12.51; March 12.59.

DRY GOODS MARKET

New York, June 19.—Priated wash fabrics sold well today. Wool tended to reach higher price levels. Silk ribbons sold well, there being a good demand. Jobbers reported trade quiet for future delivery.

STOCK MARKET WSS QUIET

Except Rock Island Securities Which Were Unusually Active and Covered a Wide Range.

New York, June 19.—Except for the Rock Island securities, which were unusually active and covered a wide range, the stock market todty was quiet and flat. The undertone was firm and there was a light upward tendency. Speculators were as reluctant as before to take a decided position pending the much discussed decision in the freight rate case.

Early in the day it was reported that the Rock Island re-organized plan would be announced shortly and heavy trading in the securities of the company relieved the dulness during the early hours. The bonds, with the exception of the collaterals were bid up strongly. The collateral 4s dropped 2 3-8 to 30, the lowest price on record. Demand sterling broke 40 points, making a decline of about 100 points in three days. Despite this movement exportation of gold continued $1,500,000 being engaged today. Owing largely to the gold movement preliminary estimates of tomorrow's bank statement based on known movements of currency, suggested a shrinkage in cash of $4,000,000 to $8,-000,000.

Aside from the Rock Island issues, the movement of the bond market was small. No definite trend developed. Some issues which recently were weak including St. Louis and San Francisco refunding 4s were higher. Total sales, par value, $2,733,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

The cottonseed oil market was easier today, reflecting liquidation of July, favorable weather in the cotton belt, which led to talk of freer offerings of new crude and a slow consuming demand. Much of the trade was switching from July to later months. Closing prices were five points higher to five lower, with sales 9,800 barrals.

The market closed steady. Spot 7.25 to 7.35; June 7.24 to 7.32; July 7.30 to 7.32; August 7.48 to 7.49; September 7.54 to 7.55; October 7.34 to 7.36; November 7.02 to 7.03; December 6.94 to 6.96; January 6.94 to 6.95. Total sales, 8,600.

CARD OF THANKS.

To those dear friends who were so kind, in both tender sympathy and golden deeds, to my beloved wife during her sickness and in their kind ministrations after she had passed away, many devoting an entire day's time in order to attend the funeral, I fervently return my most grateful thanks. I shall always hold them dear to heart.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Market Has Declined, October Going $2.70 a Bale Below the Recent Level.

New York, June 19.—The cotton market has declined during the past week with October contracts selling at 12.52 today, or $2.70 per bale under the recent high record. Favorable weather conditions in the South and unfavorable trade advices have created a more bearish, or reactionary sentiment in local circles, but short sellers have not been aggressive and most of the pressure against the market had been attributed to releasing or liquidation of long accounts.

Continued nervousness over the poor start of the crop and expectations that the coming official report will show little increase if not an actual decrease in acreage have probably restricted bear pressure, while there have also been rumors of moderate trade buying on declines and predictions of a broadening demand from that South on a scale down.

Bullishly disposed operators have partly attributed the gloomy view of trade conditions, as expressed in leading textile circles abroad to an effort to influence raw material markets and the influence or better weather advices has also been modified to some extent by the fact that many of the crop reports reaching the trade continue to indicate a very poor outlook for the ultimate yield, while ideas as to the improvement likely to be shown by the July bureau have also been modified by the condition report by a local authority showing deterioration of more than 2 per cent in the crop between May 25th and June 10.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

New York, June 19.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow:

"Excellent all round crop advices continue to extend the circle of optimism which widens at a greater rate than actual buying. However, evidences of improvement in these are accumulating in the surplus crop-growing sections which is in sharp contrast to that noticed in the essentially industrial regions. But over a large area distribution at retail is better, wholesale trade is looking up demand for iron and steel is larger, collections are somewhat easier, traffic on Western rtilroads is increasing and heavy sales of wheat for export are reported. Activity is the keynot of Northeastern reports, returns from the winter wheat belt are assuring, in the Midwest interior distributors are buying more freely and trade news from the South, though somewhat mixed is more encouraging in the main because of the favorable trend of crop reports. On the other hand trade in the East develops rather slowly and a similar statement applies to the Pacific Northwest.

For the week: Bank clearings $3,-139,180,000, a decrease of 4.5 per cent from last year; wheat exports 3,685,-306 bushels, against 5,339,428 last year; failures 249, against 235.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Norfolk not alone has justified my attitude, but has been of incalculable support in making the police work of the city as effective as it has been."

A new by-law was adopted which provides no man can belong to the association who had been public charged with dishonesty or other corruption in office and been found guilty.

The association rejected the plan to amalgamate with the national organization of sheriffs and railway detectives.

CONCLAVE OF BASEBALL MAGNATES IN NEW YORK

Little Evidence That "Federal" Question Was Seriously Considered.

New York, June 19.—Although representatives of organized baseball were here in numbers today, presumably to consider ways and means of offsetting Federal League opposition, there was little evidence that the question was seriously considered. Governor Tener, of Pennsylvania, president of the National League, presided at a brief session of that organization, but so far as could be learned no action was taken. The meeting adjourned until tomorrow, to see what action was taken. The meeting adjourned until tomorrow, to see what would be done at a meeting of the National commission, set for tonight.

No meeting of the commission was held, however, because Ban Johnson was unaccountably absent.

Various rumors were in circulation as to the probable action to be taken. That something radical was likely to result from the conclave of the magnates was a general belief. Leading men of organized baseball have declared only recently that the Federal League would not last through the present season, but the under current of talk about baseball headquarters indicated that the magnates were much worried about the inroads made by the new organization on the established leagues.

That out of war peace might be evolved was one persistent report.

FOR RE-ORGANIZATION OF ROCK ISLAND SYSTEM.

Tentative Plan Agreed Upon by Committee of the Interests.

New York, June 19.—Committees representing collateral trust bonds of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company and committees representing stockholders of the Rock Island Company, today reached a tentative agreement for the re-organization of the Rock Island system.

The plan as announced tonight contemplates the elimination of both holding companies, a return to the old Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company, and the creation of non-accumulative 7 per cent preferred stock of the railway company.

Both bond holders and stockholders are protected under the plan, it is stated, and $30,000,000 new money will be obtained to finance the road for the next three years. The trust indenture, securing the collateral bonds now in default, will be foreclosed and the pledged stock of the railway company participated, according to the contemplated plan.

Out of this common stock collateral trust bondholders are to retain at par 62 1-2 per cent of the face value of their bonds and the remainder of such common stock is to be offered for subscription with the new preferred stock. The bondholders thus retain 62 1-2 per cent of the stock deposited as collateral for their present bonds and part only with that necessary to raise the funds required and to add value to the stock retained.

THAT EMPRESS WAS STEERING ERRATICALLY

Is Claim Which Evidence Is Intended to Prove.

Quebec, June 19.—Evidence intended to corroborate the contention of some members of the crew of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland, that the liner was steering erratically just before she was rammed by the collier Storstad and went down in the St. Lawrence river May 29th, with a loss of more than a thousand lives, today was presented before the Dominion commission investigating the disaster.

Members of the crew and pilot of the collier Alden, which passed the liner a few hours before she sank, swore the Empress was zigzagging in her course and they had been forced to turn the Alden aside to avert what they believed would have been a collision.

Jacob Saxe, third officer of the Storstad, who was aiding in the navigation of that vessel just prior to the collision, gave similar testimony. Saxe will undergo a rigid cross-examination by counsel for the owners of the Empress tomorrow.

BANKERS WANT SECTION TWENTY-TWO INTERPRETED.

But Comptroller Williams Makes Only Brief Reply.

Washington, June 19.—Banks which are to become members of Federal Reserve Banks, are writing to the Treasury Department constantly for an interpretation of Section 22, of the Federal Reserve Act, which provides that officers, employes and attorneys of member banks shall not receive any compensation except their regular salaries "for any transaction or business of the bank."

Comptroller of the Currency Williams refused to discuss the provision today further than to say:

"It is designed to prevent practices which have been very pernicious."

The Comptroller made it clear that he does not care to interpret the act in detail as that duty will fall upon the Federal Reserve Board after it comes into existence.

PHOTOGRAPHERS ADJOURN.

Next Annual Meeting to be Held at Indianapolis.

Atlanta, Ga., June 19.—Indianapolis today was selected as the convention city for 1915 by the Photographers' Association of America at the closing session of its annual convention here. Officers elected were: W. H. Towles, Washington, D. C., president; L. A. Dozier, Bucyrus, O.; R. W. Phillips, Philadelphia, vice presidents; and R. W. Holsinger, Charlottesville, Va., treasurer.

FIFTY SHOTS FIRED IN A RUNNING FIGHT IN BOSTON.

Police Inspector Killed and Alleged Murderer Injured.

Boston, June 19.—Police Inspector Thomas F. Norton was killed and Lawrence Robinson, said to be wanted in Grand Rapids, Mich., for triple murder, was seriously wounded late today in a running fight that followed Norton's attempt to arrest Robinson.

Two other police inspectors and a companion of Robinson, Joseph Daniels, joined in the firing which started in a restaurant in the business section and ended in the crowded street outside. Fifty shots were fired. Daniels was arrested.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 19.—Lawrence P. Robinson is wanted in Grand Rapids in connection with the daylight robbery of the Thomson jewelry store last September, in which three men connected with the concern were shot and killed by two robbers, who escaped with about $2,200 worth of diamonds.

CROP PROSPECTS BETTER.

Rains in Duplin Have Wrought Great Change.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., June 19.—Reports coming in from all sections indicate that the crop conditions in the surrounding country are much improved The field corn crop is expected to yield a good harvest. The tobacco growers have taken advantage of the showers, and the cloudy weather to replant the plants that died on account of the dry weather that existed when they were first transplanted. Good showers have fallen since the last plants have been set, and it is expected that a good crop of this kind will be realized. The cotton is also expected to be better than it was thought it would be a short time ago.

TO BEGIN INVESTIGATION.

Looking to Criminal Prosecution of Defunct Banks' Officers.

Chicago, June 19.—MacLay Hoyne, State's attorney, announced tonight he would begin an immediate investigation of the affairs of the LaSalle Street Trust & Savings Bank to determine if criminal charges would be brought against its officers.

The bank's affairs now are in the hands of W. C. Niblack, vice president of the Chicago Title & Trust Company, appointed receiver today. His bond was fixed at $2,500,000.

The State's attorney said he had been drawn into the bank investigation by a complaint of criminality brought by a depositor.

"I know the situation now," he added, "and I don't see how it could be worse."

BEGIN MILITARY CAREERS.

West Point Graduates Assigned to Their Places.

Washington, June 19.—The cadets who last week were graduated from the Military Academy at West Point, today were assigned by the War Department to the arms of the service in which they will begin their active military careers. The first 15, in recognition of their distinguished standing, were assigned to the engineer crops. Of the others 21 were assigned to the cavalry arm; seven to the field artillery, 20 to the coast artillery, and 43 to the infantry.

Those assigned to the engineers include B. B. Somervell, Arkansas; F. S. Skinner, North Carolina, and I. H. Carruth, Louisiana.

SEWERAGE SYSTEM.

Mount Olive Seriously Considering Installment.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., June 19.—The installation of a complete sewerage system here is being very seriously considered now, long ago recognized as an absolute necessity in any effort to render the city as healthful as it should be.

As a preliminary step in this direction, the city commissioners a few days ago engaged the services of the J. B. McCrary Company, of Atlanta, Ga., to make a water and sewerage map of the city, by which the cost of extending the waterworks and installing a sewerage system can be determined.

DISASTER NARROWLY AVERTED.

Two Pullmans Derailed as Trains Pass on Double Track.

Danville, Va., June 19.—Two Pullman cars on northbound Southern Railway's fast mail were derailed near Gretna, 25 miles northward, at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon just as the train was passing the southbound fast mail on a double track. The Pullmans sideswiped the whole length of the other train, but steel coaches saved it from serious injury. Ticket Collector Charles A. Douglass, of train No. 35, suffered a severe cut on the face and is in a hospital here. No one else was injured seriously. A broken brake-rigging caused the accident.

NO DECISION YET.

By Commerce Commission in Freight Rate Case.

Washington, June 19.—The decision of the Inter-State Commerce Commission in the Eastern freight rate case will not be announced tomorrow, as had been expected in some quarters. Indications today were that it would not be made public for several days at least, and some persons well informed as to the commission's procedure predicted it would not be announced for two weeks.

MONUMENT TO SWIFT GALLOWAY

To be Erected by His Friends—Has Been Ordered.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 19.—After more than a decade, a monument to Capt. Swift Galloway is to be erected in the Episcopal churchyard at Snow Hill, where he lived and was loved. The memorial will be a shaft 12 feet high, weighing about two tons and as plain as the man. Lawyers and friends throughout the State contributed to the fund to purchase it. Galloway was famous in North Carolina a generation ago as an orator of the old style, and was a popular lawyer of Greene county. He served in the Legislature and in variols other public capacities. One side of the shaft will bear this inscripton. "In memory of Capt. Swft Galloway, erected by loving friends." Another side will have this quotation: "Write me as one who loves hs fellowman." The gight and left sides will be engraved respectively with the Masonic emblem and "Confederate soldier." The oder for the monument has been given. The shaft will be unveiled with simple exercises in the fall.
